

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR EDUCATIONAL LOANS

Calumet College of St. Joseph does not participate in any revenue-sharing arrangements with any lenders, does not steer borrowers to particular lenders or delay alternative loan certifications, and does not participate in offering of funds for private loans to students in exchange for providing concessions or promises to the lender for a specific number of federal student aid loans, a specified loan volume, or a preferred lender arrangement. This code of conduct is applicable to all officers, employees, and agents of the College and employees of the Office of Financial Aid are prohibited from receiving gifts from a lender, guaranty agency, or loan servicer; as well as accepting compensation for any consulting arrangement or contract to provide services to or on behalf of a lender relating to education loans and service on an advisory board, commission, or group established by lenders or guarantors, except for reimbursement for reasonable expenses.

(This information is in accordance with the U.S. Department of Education's regulations on lender relationships)