Learning Outcomes/ Competencies: Students in this course will develop a comprehensive understanding of the importance of attending to their physical and mental well-being in the high stress environment of law enforcement.
Course Description: This course focuses on an organization's most valuable resource-its people. Public Safety is a high stress environment, taking its toll on people who perform oftentimes thankless jobs; draining them of their energy and motivation and significantly affecting their health. Individuals need ways to reduce stress, build resilience, develop their emotional intelligence, and enhance their communication skills. Leaders need to model good behavior and self-care practices if they expect their employees to do the same. Students will be exposed to and practice several different techniques to improve their personal well-being.
Learning Strategies: Reading material, lectures, power point presentations, discussions, student presentations, videos, quizzes, and essays.
Experiential Learning Opportunities: We will utilize problem-based and project-based learning activities.

Assessments:
Major Assignments:	Quizzes (5) at 10 points per Presentation (1) Essays (3) at 10 points per Extra Credit: 1 to 5 points for any exceptional essay	50 points 20 points 30 points 1 to 5 points

Responsibilities
Attending Class	You cannot succeed in this class if you do not attend. We believe that intellectual growth and success in higher education occur through interaction in the classroom and laboratories. However, we do not want to penalize students for participating in college-sponsored events. When you miss class because of a college event, you must give notice of your absence in advance, and you are responsible for all missed work. Being absent doesn't excuse you from doing class work; you have more responsibilities to keep up and meet the objectives of this course. Due to the accelerated format of the program, it is a serious matter when a student misses even one session. If the student misses more than one session, the student is required to withdraw by contacting the academic advisor and their instructor. Coming late and leaving early will adversely impact the grade. One missed class loses 5 points. Coming in late or leaving early loses anywhere from 1 point to 5 points depending on the extent of the absence. Obviously, this can make a difference in the final grade.

Turning in your work	You cannot succeed in this class if you do not turn in all your work on the day it is due. There is a specific due date for the essay/paper for this class and you will be assigned a date (convenient to you) to make your presentation. As well, you must be present for the quizzes. There are no make-up quizzes. A missed quiz loses the entire ten points. You are required also to make your presentation on the date assigned to you or make arrangements with the instructor to re-schedule. Failure to do so will cost you all points for the presentation. Five points will be deducted for each class day that the essay/paper is overdue. The essays must be hard copy.
CCSJ Student Honor	This course asks students to reaffirm the CCSJ Student Honor Code: I, as a student member of the Calumet College academic community, in accordance with the college's mission and in a spirit of mutual respect, pledge to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Continuously embrace honesty and curiosity in the pursuit of my education goals. Avoid all behaviors that could impede or distract from the academic progress of myself or other members of my community Do my own work with integrity at all times, in accordance with syllabi, and without giving or receiving inappropriate aid Do my utmost to act with commitment, inside and outside of class, to the goals and mission of Calumet College of Saint Joseph
Using Electronic Devices	Electronic devices can only be used in class for course-related purposes. If you text or access the Internet for other purposes, you may be asked to leave, in which case you will be marked absent. All phones need to be set to vibrate or silent. Taking a call during class is disruptive. Texting during class is the height of rudeness and most definitely will impact the grade with a loss of 1 or more points depending on the frequency and extent of the texting.
Participating in Class	Participation is vital to the learning process. Students will be prepared to discuss the assigned material and contribute personal opinions and ideas relevant to the subject matter. Class participation will affect the student's grade. Coming late, leaving early, texting, all affect the participation aspect of the grade as outlined above. You cannot participate if you are not here or not paying attention.
Doing Your Own Work	If you turn in work that is not your own, you are subject to judicial review, and these procedures can be found in the College Catalog and the Student Planner. The maximum penalty for any form of academic dishonesty is dismissal from the College. Using standard citation guidelines, such as MLA or APA format, to document sources avoids plagiarism. The Library has reference copies of

	each of these manuals, and there are brief checklists in your Student Handbook and Planner. PLEASE NOTE: All papers will be electronically checked for plagiarism. Eyes on your own paper during the quizzes. Students observed looking at another student's quiz will receive a ZERO for the quiz. I am very strict about this.
Sharing Your Class Experience	At the end of the term, you will have the opportunity to evaluate your classroom experience. These confidential surveys are essential to our ongoing efforts to ensure that you have a great experience that leaves you well prepared for your future. Take the time to complete your course evaluation-we value your feedback.
Withdrawing from Class	After the last day established for class changes has passed (see the College calendar), you may withdraw from a course by following the policy outlined in the CCSJ Course Catalog.
CCSJ Book Rental Program	The CCSJ Book Program ensures that everyone has the right course materials on the first day of class to be successful. You pay a book rental fee each semester, and in return, receive all the materials for all your classes prior to the beginning of classes. At the end of the semester, simply return the books. For traditional students, the Book Rental Programs in conveniently located in the library, where students can pick up and return their books. For students in accelerated programs and graduate programs, books will be delivered to their homes and they can return them by mail. For more information, see http://www.ccsj.edu/bookstore . All books must be returned at the end of the semester or you will incur additional fees, which will be charged to your student account.
Resources
Student Success Center:	The Student Success Center provides faculty tutors at all levels to help you master specific subjects and develop effective learning skills. It is open to all students at no charge. You can contact the Student Success Center at 219 473-4287 or stop by the Library.
Disability Services:	Disability Services strives to meet the needs of all students by providing academic services in accordance with Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) guidelines.
