Responsibilities
Your instructor reserves the right to change this schedule to meet the needs of the class.
Attending Class	You cannot succeed in this class if you do not attend. We believe that intellectual growth and success in higher education occur through interaction in the classroom and laboratories. Being absent doesn't excuse you from doing class

	work; you have more responsibilities to keep up and meet the objectives of this course. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Attendance is taken at the beginning of each class period. If you are late, you are counted absent. As per the student handbook, students can be dropped for 3 unexcused absences. 2. Students are expected to attend each session and will be held responsible—whether they are present or not—for any assignments due, materials covered, or announcements made in class. If assignments are due in class, assignments are late after scheduled class start time. When you miss class because of a college event, you must give notice of your absence in advance, and you are responsible for all missed work. 3. Attendance is mandatory on speech days and test days. If you miss a test or speech, zero points will be awarded unless you are traveling with a sport team or can provide a medical slip from your physician. 4. Attendance when others are speaking is mandatory. You will have points assigned and assignments that day as well.
Turning In Your Work	You cannot succeed in this class if you do not turn in all your work when due. Class Policy for Assignments <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Reading assignments should be completed before class meets. Points may be deducted if student continues to not follow directions. 2. In-class quizzes will be utilized if reading is not being done. A quiz will be given first 10 minutes of class. There are no make ups if quizzes are missed without MD excuse or in case of team travel. 3. Written assignments must be created in MS Word software, Times New Roman 12-point font, on 8-1/2 x 11 white paper, standard margins. Homework will be turned in as directed. 4. Assignments will be accepted up until the next test with reduced point value. Grades for accepted late work will be lowered at the instructor’s discretion. 5. If you miss a class it is expected that you will post all assignments prior to that class period, otherwise they are considered late. I appreciate knowing prior to next class period if you are traveling for a team sport and will be missing class. Participation in class is required. Intelligent, respectful conversation is expected.
Meeting Standards for Classroom Behavior	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use all the class time. Come to class on time and stay in class until the end. Coming late, leaving early, and getting up during class disrupts the class and disrespects others. • Come prepared. Bring your texts, be prepared to take notes, and be able to demonstrate that you have completed the assignments for the day through your participation in class. • Respect others. Listen when your classmates and the instructor are speaking. Think about their contributions. Respond appropriately. • Use electronic devices only for class purposes. Engage with your classmates and the instructor without technological distractions.
CCSJ Student Honor Code	This course asks students to reaffirm the CCSJ Student Honor Code:

Doing Your Own Work	If you turn in work that is not your own, you will be subject to judicial review by the Faculty-Student Grievance Committee. These procedures can be found in the Student Planner. The maximum penalty for any form of academic dishonesty is dismissal from the College. Using standard citation guidelines to document sources avoids plagiarism. These confidential surveys are essential to our ongoing efforts to ensure that you have a great experience that leaves you well prepared for your future. Take the time to complete your course evaluations – we value your feedback!
