Instructor Background:

Hello! I am Associate Professor of History and Program Director of History here at Calumet College of St. Joseph. I have been at CCSJ since 1995, and I consider it a great honor to be part of our school's mission. I look forward to getting to know you all (and getting better acquainted with those I already know) this semester; helping you learn more about history, why it is fascinating, and why it matters; and, more broadly, accompanying you on the path of intellectual and spiritual growth as expressed by the Five Pillars.

My hobbies are dog walking, cookie baking, vegetable gardening (though I don't do that terribly well), reading novels by Charles Dickens, and watching classic Hollywood films and animated cartoons.

My research interests include sacred and spiritual themes as reflected in literature, art and popular culture through the ages; and the use of first-person accounts (autobiography and memoir) to illuminate the past and make it exciting for today's readers.

Welcome to my class, AND, to those of you who are new to the college: Welcome to CCSJ!

Student Responsibilities
Safety Measures	The safety of our College Family in this unprecedented time is our primary concern. Following guidelines presented by the Centers of Disease Control (CDC), the Indiana Health Department, and best practices among other institutions of higher education, we are requiring the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Face coverings in all indoor public spaces, including classrooms, the library, the Tutoring Center, and faculty offices.</li> <li>• Daily self-monitoring. If you have a temperature of 100.4 or higher, or any symptoms of COVID-19 – fever or chills, a cough, shortness of breath or difficulty breathing, fatigue, muscle or body aches, headache, loss of taste or smell, sore throat, or nausea or vomiting – stay home and consult the class policy for staying on track.</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Disinfect your personal space using the materials provided when you enter the classroom.</li> <li>• Maintain physical distancing of at least six feet within classrooms and other common spaces.</li> </ul>
Attending Class	You cannot succeed in this class if you do not attend. We believe that intellectual growth and success in higher education occur through interaction in the classroom and laboratories. Being absent doesn't excuse you from doing class work; you have more responsibilities to keep up and meet the objectives of this course. History class attendance policy for HYBRID CLASSES: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On virtual learning days, you will be marked "present" as long as you submit the required work for that day (which may include discussion board participation) DURING OUR REGULARLY SCHEDULED CLASS TIME. (For HIST 110A students, this means active involvement with the class between 1:45 and 3:15 P.M.)</li> <li>On face-to-face learning days, you will be marked "present" as long as you are visibly there, either in person or via Zoom. Late arrivals and premature departures from class will both be designated "tardy" in the attendance record.</li> </ol>
Turning In Your Work	You cannot succeed in this class if you do not turn in all your work when due. Extensions are granted ONLY in case of illness, family emergency, or unavoidable conflict due to other commitments you have for CCSJ. Please note that extensions are not issued automatically; you must request them. THERE IS A LIMIT OF TWO EXTENSIONS PER STUDENT PER SEMESTER, AND 7 DAYS IS THE MAXIMUM LENGTH FOR AN EXTENSION.
Meeting Standards for Classroom Behavior (NOTE: These guidelines apply only to sessions held face-to-face and / or via Zoom—thus, they do not apply to our particular class.)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use all the class time. Come to class on time and stay in class until the end.
